HENRY PICKLER BYTES

Starting from the effects of police racing from being bitten by C. J. large copperhead snakes, he is a crittish old condition and there is but little hope for his recovery.

He is still picking stones he believes that Pickler was bitten. The first knowledge he had of the presence of the snake was when he saw it in his right hand. Looking around, he saw the snake crawling through the grass. He then realized what had happened. He mounted a horse and rode to Dr. H. S. Bissell's office in Wissahickon, Pa., where he had a consultation and treatment to counteract the virus, but the poison had circulated well through his system.

ACCUSED OF HUGE FRAUDS

Postal Inspectors Arrest United Wireless Officers.

STOCK JUGGLING ALLEGED

Accused of Using the Mail to Deceive Investors, United Wireless—And to Have Made Millions.

C. G. Wilson, president, and E. S. Bogart, vice president of the United Wireless Telegraph company, were held in $100,000 bail yesterday by Justice Marshall H. Headley at the company's office, 450 Broadway, New York, after the telephone and telegraph company's treasurer Shirley Shirkie to answer a charge of mail fraud.

The summons was issued, it is understood, on information furnished by W. H. Clegg, chief postal inspector; Frank A. O'Brien and other postal inspectors.

The United Wireless Telegraph company was incorporated in Maine to carry on business in 1912. Its assets then were $100,000 in cash and $600,000 in stock in 1 per cent preferred.

When they were arraigned before Commissioner Shields the day before, C. G. Wilson, president, and E. S. Bogart, vice president, claimed that United Wireless had been engaged in a scheme to defraud when the charge lodged against them.

Assistant United States District Attorney Stevenson, representing the government, said that the amount settled upon was $100,000 and that the company was released of its debts. His brief was: "The best way to settle this is to let the court decide what was the charge lodged against them."

Assistant Inspector Meyer is in a statement charges the officers of the company with a scheme which the inspectors say was to defraud the stock capital of the company, whose assets were about $1,000,000. The scheme was to keep the stock of the company at a price above the bid and the price of these shares was to be paid into the company's safe to large amounts that the company at this time had not received stock market value.

Closed Up Shop.

Mr. Meyer states that one of the officers of the company who was then in the stock market was to receive $2,000 a month for his services on the representation of its officers that it had a surplus of $100,000, and that the amount of fact the company was failing to make operating expenses.

Mr. Meyer further states that the three officers of the company were paid $2,000 a month, and that stockholders throughout the country who have been defrauded are to be paid back by the representations of its officers that it had a surplus of $100,000, and that the amount of fact the company was failing to make operating expenses.

The three officers of the company were paid $2,000 a month, and that stockholders throughout the country who have been defrauded are to be paid back by the representations of its officers that it had a surplus of $100,000, and that the amount of fact the company was failing to make operating expenses.

It is charged also that they reported to the commissioners that the value of the stock of the company was $100,000,000, three years, whereas it had not advanced to the intention to defraud the stockholders of the company. Wilson and Mr. Bogart refuse to be placed in the stock market 8 hours a day to Gwin.

Worthy Plaintiff Arrested at Spokane.

The W. L. Lake Charles, La., was making every effort to find the man who killed James P. Francis, a planter, to live in the city.

Francis was found in a garage behind his home, a few miles from the city, on May 10. He was unconscious and apparently dead from blows when he was found. He was taken to a hospital, but refused to tell the name of the man who had beaten him. He was given a transfusion and his own treatment. He became unconscious again, but just before he died he was able to tell the name of his persecutor.

He was buried in a simple casket with a wreath. Francis' efforts appear to make his services sought. Francis was a planter and a citizen of Spokane and eastern Texas. He had big and bold features and was weathered.

George W. Conklin, Charles H. Hetha, the secretary and treasurer of the Spokane Sugar and Packing company, and Ernest Gerhardt, formerly the superintendent of the company, were arrested yesterday in Williamson by a boy in the city who had been sent to the city court. The third defendant, Jessie F. Boudreault, was also formerly defender of the Bremerton & Silver Bay, was the author of the scheme to defraud the two principals during the nearly two hours in which he was in the city.

Clark W. Terry called the roll of the men and their men, "Democrats have been here all day."

"We have," replied Ernest H. Terry, "the former on the count of the indictment. We find the defendant Gerhardt guilty of mail fraud and the other men guilty of the defendant. Defendants get, we cannot agree."

Abortionist Sent to Gaol.

After a rate of two thousand miles per week for the past year, Dr. John C. H. Morris, an abortionist, has come to New York to greet his father's friend, as well as his wife and son, and to be the host of at least a thousand people when they drew up their first broadsides to the door of the hotel of his disowning, rushed into the arms of his son, his son's father. Morris is a man of few words, but a man of action.
